GUEST SPEAKER

Associate Professor Dr. Zaidah binti Zainal
Language Academy
Universiti Teknologi Malaysia

Associate Professor Dr. Zaidah binti Zainal is a senior lecturer at Language Academy, UTM, and has vast academic experience in her profession. She has been involved in teaching, researching, publishing, and conducting community activities related to language and communication skills. Besides teaching undergraduate TESL and English language proficiency courses in UTM, she is also involved in training English language school teachers, specifically in exposing them to the best practices and approaches of teaching reading skills. Her research interests have been on reading skills, teaching approaches, and literary studies. She is very much involved in supervising research students at both graduate and postgraduate levels. She has written numerous articles, mostly in the area of reading, in several book chapters and journals. Her experience has also positioned her to be the Chief Editor of LSP International Journal.
